About shopping in the historic core

The historic core of Kingston is especially rich in older buildings, with many that date back to the mid 1800s. Solidly built of limestone and brick, these have often been transformed into attractive shops. More than three-quarters are owner-managed, making a profound difference for anyone accustomed to the uniformity of big-box shopping malls.

Kingston's boutiques are nearly always small and each specialises in its own unique collections of European, Asian and Canadian-made clothes, shoes, accessories and gifts. No two are the same.

Mixed in with these shops are art and craft galleries with a focus on local and national artists and artisans.

Leave time to enjoy a meal at one of Kingston's many excellent cafés, pubs and restaurants.
